According to settlers, the barangay was formally divided as "SITIOS" of BOLO and TOBOY. As year passed, the families of PASCUA, MALINAB and VILORIA who are from MAGSINGAL, ILOCOS SUR migrated to Sitio Bolo. This brought a greater population within the proximity, thus, a need to convert the Sitio's into barangay was requested and formed into resolution.

The resolution was then approved on March 27, 1970 thru the assistance of Basilio Campos, who was then a Barangay Captain of Toboy and Mayor Leonardo Carbonel.

The word PALARIS was named in honor of Mr. Felicisimo Palaris who was then a Regional Supervisor of the Bureau of Public Schools since he offered his lot for the construction of a Community School building.
